CMP STRANGE v TEXT RIPPLE INC (dat)

v.

TEXT RIPPLE INC.,

a Michigan Domestic Profit Corporation

Defendant

CIVIL ACTION:

For Violations of The Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991

Plaintiff Waives his Seventh Amendment Right to Jury Trial

Preliminary Statement:

This is an action brought by an individual consumer for violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 “TCPA” against Defendant Text Ripple Inc. for allegedly sending Plaintiff text spam without his express consent. Plaintiff is seeking damages and injunctive relief under the TCPA.

Jurisdiction & Venue:

Jurisdiction arises in this court due to the action involves Federal Question Jurisdiction pursuant to:

47 U.S.C. §227(g)(2)

28 U.S.C. § 1331

Venue lies properly in this district pursuant to:

28 U.S.C. § 1391

Parties:

Plaintiff Clinton Strange is an adult individual residing at:

7021 Winburn Drive

Greenwood, LA 71033

Defendant TEXT RIPPLE INC. “TR” is a Michigan Domestic Profit Corporation who is associated with the SMS short code that Plaintiff alleges to have received the unwanted text spam from, and whose registered agent is listed as:

Keith Gloster

45658 Rathmore Drive

Macomb, MI 48044

Factual Allegations:

1. Plaintiff’s wireless cellphone number 318-780-8946 has been registered on the Federal Do-Not-Cal listing since January 24, 2018 [See Exhibit A].
2. Plaintiff does not like to receive unwanted commercially solicitous phone calls or text spam on his cellphone because they “intrude on his seclusion and violate his rights to privacy guaranteed under the U.S. Constitution”, and further deplete plaintiff’s memory storage capacity, deplete Plaintiff’s battery level on his cellphone (amounting to a conversion Tort under Louisiana State Laws), and require him to use a measurable amount of mental and physical energy to receive the calls or texts and or review the contents of them and clear them from his incoming message queue. Plaintiff alleges that [he] has Article III standing as a result of Defendant's alleged conduct.

3. Defendant's text messages were placed to telephone number assigned to a cellular telephone service for which Plaintiff incurs a charge for incoming calls and data pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1) [See Exhibit B].
4. Plaintiff is not a customer of Defendant's services and has never provided any personal information, including his telephone number, to Defendant for any purpose whatsoever.
5. Defendant's text spam constituted 'calls' that were not for emergency purposes as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A).
6. During all relevant times, Defendant did not possess Plaintiff's "prior express consent" to receive texts using an automatic telephone dialing system to send texts to his cellular telephones pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A).
7. Defendant used an "automatic telephone dialing system" as defined by 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(1) to place its "calls" (text messages are treated as calls under the TCPA) to Plaintiff seeking to solicit goods services (which constituted telemarketing) of “Smoothie Factory”. Smoothie Factory is a company based in Dallas, Texas, and is owned by Parent Company BRIX Holdings. The General Counsel for BRIX Holdings communicated to the Plaintiff that TR did not have any relationship BRIX Holdings or the Smoothie Factory brand.

8. The Plaintiff knows that the Defendant TR is an SMS / MMS Texting platform provider of mass text messaging services. Other U.S. District Courts have found that even 2 text messages were sufficient to plead that an ATDS was used to send text messages See Cline v. Ultimate Fitness Grp., LLC, No. 6:18-cv-771-Orl-37GJK, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 98898 (M.D. Fla. June 7, 2018). TR’s website textriple.com offers mass texting services. Other U.S. District courts have found that other SMS Platform providers offering mass text messaging services are utilizing an ATDS for example See Rotberg v. Jos. A. Bank Clothiers, Inc. Case No. 16-cv-2962, 2018 WL 5787480 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 5, 2018),
9. Defendant sent at least three text messages to Plaintiff during a 12-month period [See Exhibit C].
10. Defendant initiated the first text spam to Plaintiff’s cellphone on October 16, 2018 at 9:17am CST from short code number 411669 [See Exhibit D].

11. The text spam was sent to Plaintiff's cellphone number 318-780-8946 [See Exhibit E].

12. The text spam has 'message details' [See Exhibit F].

13. Defendant initiated the second unwanted text spam to Plaintiff's cellphone on October 16, 2018 at 2:28pm CST from short code number 411669 [See Exhibit G].

14. The text spam was sent to Plaintiffs cellphone number 318-780-8946 [See Exhibit H].

15. The text spam had 'message details' [See Exhibit I].

16. Defendant initiated the third unwanted text spam to Plaintiff's cellphone on October 19, 2018 at 2:00pm CST from short code number 411669 [See Exhibit J].

17. The text spam was sent to Plaintiffs cellphone number 318-780-8946 [See Exhibit K].

18. The text spam had 'message details' [See Exhibit L].

19. The messages were sent to solicit Plaintiff to purchase goods and services of Smoothie Factory which denies having partnered with or hiring TR to initiate messages on their behalf.

20. Short code number 411669 is a short code operated by or associated with the Defendant TR [See Exhibit M].

21. TR's website (page last visited 2-24-2019 at 8:54am CST) shows that mass texting is a service they offer from their SMS/MMS platform which has the present capacity to meet the definition of an ATDS [See Exhibit N].

22. Defendant TR is a Michigan Domestic Profit Corporation that operates an SMS Text Messaging platform and was formed May 8, 2007 [See Exhibit O].

23. Defendant TR has the 'Vanity Short Code' 411669 registered with the Common Short Code Administration "CSCA".

24. Defendant TR is principally domiciled in Royal Oak, MI, and has a social media presence on Facebook[See Exhibit P].

25. The Eastern District of Michigan is within the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals.

26. The TCPA provides for a private right of action for violations of the act at 47 USC 227(c)(5). This section only applies to telephone solicitation calls. Anyone whose numbers are registered on the DNC list that has received two telemarketing calls within a twelve-month period can sue for all calls including the first. It does not matter if calls are live, pre-recorded or robo calls. The DNC provision is a powerful section of the TCPA because it prohibits calls to both cell phone and residential lines, which are registered on the federal or company specific do-not call lists. It is not necessary to prove the telemarketer used an ATDS or used artificial or pre-recorded voice messages. Live calls to numbers registered on the DNC are prohibited.

27. The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals has held that damages under this section may be stacked on top of the TCPA 227(b) section covering "calls to cell phones." This means that the consumer can get up to $3000.00 per call for violations of the cell phone prohibitions and the DNC provisions See Charvat v NMP, LLC, 656 F. 3d 440 (6th Cir. 2011).

28. Courts may treble the damages award if the court finds that defendant's violations were committed "willfully or knowingly." 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3). Although neither the TCPA nor the FCC regulations define the terms "willfully or knowingly", courts have generally interpreted willfulness to imply only that an action was intentional. See Smith v. Wade, 461 U.S. 30, 41 n.8 (1983). While the TCPA does not define willful, the Communications Act of 1934, of which the TCPA is a part, defines willful as "the conscious or deliberate commission or omission of such act, irrespective of any intent to violate any provision, rule or regulation." In Dubsky v. Advanced Cellular Communications, Inc., No. 2008 cv 00652, 2004 WL 503757, at * 2 (Ohio Com. Pl. Feb. 24, 2004), the court found that in the context of the TCPA, the term acting "willfully" means that "the defendant acted voluntarily, and under its own free will, regardless of whether the defendant knew that it was acting in violation of the statute.” 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

“Importantly though, the intent for treble damages does not require any malicious or wanton conduct, but rather is satisfied by merely ‘knowing’ conduct. Alea London Ltd., 638 F.3d at 776. The court in SENGENBERGER, held:

“the statute does not require an entity to state its telephone number at any given time during the message. The fact that Plaintiff’s personal voice message recording did not record Defendant’s message in its entirety is insufficient to constitute a violation In Dubsky v. Advanced Cellular Communications, Inc., No. 2008 cv 00652, 2004 WL 503757, at * 2 (Ohio Com. Pl. Feb. 24, 2004), the court found that in the context of the TCPA, the term acting “willfully” means that “the defendant acted voluntarily, and under its own free will, regardless of whether the defendant knew that it was acting in violation of the statute.”

29. Recovery of damages for the two separate provisions does not upset Congress’s balance in setting damages ““fair to both the consumer and the telemarketer.”” See GVN Mich., 561 F.3d at 632 n.8 (quoting 137 Cong. Rec. S16,204, S16,205 (daily ed. Nov. 7, 1991) (statement of Sen. Hollings)).

30. The TCPA makes it unlawful for any person within the United States . . . to make any call using any automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice . . .” 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii) The TCPA defines ATDS as “equipment which has the capacity - (A) to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator; and (B) to dial such numbers.” 47 U.S.C § 227(a)(1). According to the FCC, an ATDS is any telephone equipment that has the capacity to dial numbers without human intervention. This is an extremely broad standard. If the telephone equipment can potentially be configured or programmed to auto dial, then it is considered an ATDS and is regulated by the TCPA and the FCC.

31. Presumably, this broad definition resulted because Congress anticipated and pre-empted loopholes by TCPA defendants, who could simply flip a switch on their phone systems and say “it never happened” to avoid liability. In both Satterfield v Simon et al and Griffith v Consumer Portfolio Recovery, the courts have followed the FCC’s broad definition of an ATDS: “When evaluating the issue of whether equipment is an ATDS, the statute’s clear language mandates that the focus must be on whether the equipment has the capacity “to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator. Accordingly, a system need not actually store, produce, or call randomly or sequentially generated telephone numbers, it need only have the capacity to do it.” Satterfield v Simon et al No. 07-16356 D.C. No. CV-06-02893-CW “The FCC concluded that predictive dialers are governed by the TCPA because, like earlier auto dialers, they have the capacity to dial numbers “without human intervention.” In doing so, it interpreted “automatic telephone dialing system” to include equipment that utilizes lists or databases of known, nonrandom telephone numbers.” Griffith v. Consumer Portfolio Serv., Inc., 838 F.Supp.2d 723 (N.D. Ill. 2011).

32. Under the TCPA Texts are treated as “calls”.

33. Under the TCPA the Defendants are liable to the Plaintiff for damages of $500 to $1500 for each violation of the act, and the award for damages may be stacked and trebled at the discretion of the court.

34. If the court were to award the Plaintiff damages against the Defendant for 3 text messages (though Plaintiff believes there were more text spams that he deleted), where the violations were stacked and trebled the award would be $9,000 plus costs and interest.

35. If Defendants failed to respond to or did not appear in regard to this pleading then Plaintiff would seek a judgement of $9,000, plus costs, interest, and an enjoinder from further TCPA violations.

Thank You! The "Do Not Call" List is updated quarterly. It will take 30 to 120 days for your number to appear on the list, depending upon the date you register. If you receive a call from a telemarketer after your effective date and wish to file a complaint, you will be required to download and fill out a complaint form. Some specific information is required, but any additional information you provide regarding a complaint can greatly aid our investigation of the violation.

Example of information that you will be requested to provide in a complaint:

- Your Name
- Your Home Phone Number where the Telemarketer called
- Your Parish and Mailing Address
- The Name of the Telemarketing Company and the business they represent
- The Time and Date of the Telemarketer call you received
- The Telemarketer's Phone number (If you have Caller ID or other service, it would be useful to obtain and/or retain the telemarketer's phone number with such a device.)
- The Telemarketer's Business Address
- The Product or Service you were offered

Remember that the Louisiana "Do Not Call" Program is designed to reduce the number of calls you receive from telemarketers. It will not eliminate all telemarketing calls. There are some exemptions. These exemptions generally include calls made:

- In response to an express request of the person called. For purposes of this Order, in the case of property or services advertised and offered to sale directly by the owner or provider thereof, if such advertisement or offer contains the phone number of the owner or provider or its authorized representative, then such advertisement or offer shall be deemed to be an "express request" by the owner or provider for inquiries relating to the sale or purchase of such property or services. This authorization expires six months after the "express request" is granted.
- Primarily in connection with an existing debt or contract, payment or performance of which has not been completed at the time of such call.
- To any person with whom the telephonic solicitor has an existing business relationship, or a prior business relationship that was terminated or lapsed within six (6) months of such call, except by a person or business that conducts automobile sales and does not complete the sales presentation during the telephone solicitation and is made in contemplation of the sales presentation being completed at a later face-to-face meeting between the telephonic solicitor and the person contacted and where the contacted person has previously made purchases from the automobile dealership.
- On behalf of an organization, which has non-profit status under Section 501(c) (3), or (6) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless such organization utilizes the services of a paid professional solicitor, as defined in R.S. 51:1901(6).
- For the purpose of conducting marketing research, public opinion polling, or similar activities that do not involve telephonic solicitation or selling or

- Constituting political activity. For the purposes of this Order, calls constituting political activity are defined as calls made for the sole purpose of urging support for or opposition to a political candidate or ballot issue provided that the callers identify themselves; or calls made for the sole purpose of conducting political polls or soliciting the expression of opinions, ideas or votes; or calls made by any newspaper or periodical in the state, which is qualified to be the official journal of the state or any parish, municipality, school board, or other political subdivision, as provided by Chapters 2 and 4 of Title 43 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.
- Without completing or attempting to complete a sale, said sale to be completed only after a face-to face meeting between the telephonic solicitor and the person called at the telephonic solicitor's primary place of business or at another location selected by the purchaser. The call must be the result of a referral of the person called to the telephonic solicitor, or be placed to an individual who is personally known to the telephonic solicitor. If placed as a result of a referral, the telephonic solicitor must provide to the person called the name of the person who made the referral. If the person called does not wish to be called after such initial call, then the telephonic solicitor shall not call that person and shall maintain a list of such persons. This exemption shall not apply if directly following the sale the telephonic solicitor attempts to deliver an item or collect payment from the person called or caused another to do so.

Hackers are using this company to steal credit card numbers. They have done nothing to prevent this and did not call me back. Do NOT USE! Message to Text Ripple If you decide to contact me so we can get this fixed I will take down my negative review!
